

IN SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

JANUARY 10, 1848.

Read, made the special order of the day for Monday, January 24th, 1848, and ordered to be printed.

Mr. HANNEGAN submitted for consideration the following

RESOLUTIONS:

Resolved, That no treaty of peace can be made with Mexico, having a proper regard for the best interests of the United States, which does not establish as a boundary between the two nations the most suitable line for military defence.

Resolved, That in no contingency can the United States consent to the establishment of a monarchical government within the limits of Mexico by the intervention of European power.

Resolved, That it may become necessary and proper, as it is within the constitutional capacity of this government, for the United States to hold Mexico as a territorial appendage.
